

Rosalina Indzhieva

Mrs. Rosalina Indzhieva was appointed as Deputy Executive Director of the Bulgarian Executive Environment Agency on 31.05.2021.

She has graduated with a master's degree in Information Technology from the University of Ruse "Angel Kanchev". She has received trainings for Strategic Management of IT Organization, Development of IT for E-Government, Cloud Technologies, Architecture, Models and Virtual Environment.

She began her professional career in 2003 at the Executive Environment Agency, as a junior expert. Until 2013, she held various positions as chief expert and had management role in the Press and Information Department as well as the Information Systems Maintenance Department.

In 2014, she was appointed as Director of the Information Services and Technologies, International Cooperation and Public Relations Directorate. She was responsible for the activities related to the management of information technologies in the agency, for ensuring the work processes of the agency, related to the use of server and network infrastructure, information systems, computer and peripherals, software products and services. Also coordinates international activities and relations with the EEA.

She has extensive experience in the management and implementation of national and international projects.