

Jakob Møller Nielsen

Jakob Møller Nielsen is Deputy Permanent Secretary at the Danish Ministry of Environment. He is responsible for environmental regulation on waste management, industrial emissions, air quality, pesticides, chemicals and drinking water. He is part of the ministry's board of directors.

He has an M.Sc. in Political science (Cand. Scient. Pol.) from Copenhagen University. He took up duties in the Ministry of Environment in 2017. Prior to being employed at the Ministry of Environment, he was Deputy Director General at Technical and Environmental administration in the City of Copenhagen.