

Pierre PRUM

Pierre Prum studied political sciences and international relations at the University of Vienna (Austria).

Since November 2003 he works for the Environment Ministry. During his first years, he worked partly as an environment attaché in Brussels and Luxembourg, including the 2005 Presidency of the EU Council. Later on he joined the services dealing with waste management, air quality etc and became his country's alternate member of the EEA Management Board.

Since 2007 Pierre is in charge of organizational and domestic matters, including financial and budgetary issues as well as human resources management.

During the 2015 EU Presidency, he chaired the Council Working group related to the UN ECE Committee on Environmental Policies, a continuously followed topic since then.
