

Mircea Fechet

Mircea Fechet is State Secretary for the Ministry of Environment, Waters and Forests. He has an university degree in law from the University George Bacovia of Bacau and an university degree in food engineering from the University of the Lower Danube of Galati.

The State Secretary took office in 2019 at the Ministry and since he is coordinating the activity of the following structures and units: Department for Evaluation of Impact and Pollution Control, Department of Waste, Contaminated Sites and Hazardous Substances, National Environmental Guard, The National Agency for Environmental Protection and the Administration of the Environmental Fund. Prior to being employed at the Ministry, he was vice-president at The National Agency for Public Procurement in Bucharest, external public auditor at The Court of Accounts of Romania – Audit Authority, deputy executive director at Intercommunity Development Association for Sanitation of Bacau, coordinator of the implementation of the project “Integrated Waste Management in Bacau county”.