

Mgr. Michal Maco

Mgr. Michal Maco is General Director of Slovak Environment Agency. He is responsible for managing results of the highest activities of Slovak Environment Agency. As well as for developing strategies and concepts in the field of nature and landscape protection with a national and international impact. He is responsible for human resource management, budgeting, finance and legal matters (including grants and procurement). He coordinates system information activities, methodological guidance and project management of a part of the national information system.

He has a master degree in Strategic Management and Business administration from University of Comenius. He has worked as a Head of IT Compliance and IT manager responsible for all security topics and providing strategic, Quality, Security and Compliance topics.