

ANTONIO NIETO MAGRO

Acting deputy director general for International Relations.

Antonio Nieto Magro is acting deputy director general for International Relations at the Ministry for Ecological Transition and the Demographic Challenge. Among other issues within the Ministry, he is responsible for international relations both bilateral and multilateral and the coordination of the ministry's position and activities in international organizations as well as the control of the procedures related to the application of the European Union regulations, and the monitoring of their transposition into internal law.

He entered the Spanish Civil Service in 1991. He has a degree in Law and a Master degree at the Instituto de Empresa and a Degree in Management of Public Policies at IESE. He holds an important experience in Tourism and international organizations for over 25 years. He was director general for Tourism of Madrid Region for seven years and Head of the Spanish Tourist Offices of Turespaña in Brazil and Portugal and deputy director general at the State Secretariat for Tourism as well.