

Martin Fernandez Diez-Picazo

Martin Fernandez is Deputy Head of International Relations at the Spanish Ministry for Ecologic Transition and Demographic Challenge. He contributes to the coordination of the Ministry's participation at different international fora, such as UNEP, G20 or OCDE on environment and energy issues. He also assists in the management of UE matters, such as state aids or infringement procedures, and is responsible of the Ministry's budget for contributions to international organisations.

Martin Fernandez has a doubled degree in Marine Science and Environmental Science and a Master Degree in Public Administration. He joined the Spanish Administration in 2004 as civil servant specialised in environment. He was seconded as national expert to the European Commission to work on Maritime Policy issues and for 10 years he has worked on climate change areas in the Spanish Ministry for Environment. In 2020 he took up duties in the International Relations Unit and since 2002 acts as Deputy Head of Unit.