

Petra Zimmermann

Petra Zimmermann is Vice Director of the Federal Office for the Environment (FOEN). She is responsible for the International Affairs division, the Legal division, and the sections Environmental Data, Digital, Human Resources; Finances and Controlling; Services and Language Service.

Petra Zimmermann studied physics with minors in computer science, mathematics and mechanical engineering in Karlsruhe (D) and completed her doctorate in data analytics, artificial intelligence, visualisation and smart cities at ETH Zurich in 2005.

She has been Vice Director of the FOEN since 1 July 2021.