Public Declaration of Interests (PDoI) and Declaration of Confidentiality of the members of the EEA SMT

Public Declaration of Interests

A conflict of interest is defined by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) guidelines as "a conflict between the public duties and private interest of a public official, in which the public official has private-capacity interests which could improperly influence the performance of their official duties and responsibilities"¹.

In addition, within the specific environment of the EEA and considering the general EU institutional framework, the following guidance from the European Commission² is applied: "situations of conflict of interest can arise when:

- there is some link between staff members' work and their private interest, or those of their family or partner;
- staff members find themselves in a situation that could reasonably lead to allegations being made of bias or partiality, in the light of their personal interests."

It should be noted on the one hand that having an interest does not necessarily mean having a conflict of interest. In particular, high quality of expertise is by nature based on prior experience. Declaring an interest does therefore not automatically disqualify a person or limits his/her participation in the activities of the Agency.

On the other hand it should be emphasised that this Public Declaration of Interests form does not contain an exhaustive list of potential interests and that all other elements that might jeopardise your independence when working with the Agency shall thus also be indicated.

Based on the information provided in the form, and in accordance with the Commission's "Practical Guide to Staff Ethics and Conduct" the Agency will carry out an assessment on the qualification or limitation of an individual person's participation in the activities of the Agency.
