

Markéta Suslíková

She is an officer at the EU Unit of the International Relations Department at the Ministry of the Environment of the Czech Republic. She is responsible for the coordination of the Czech Republic's involvement at the Council of the European Union.

She holds a Master's degree in European Studies at Charles University in Prague. Prior to her employment at the Ministry, she was in the EU trainee program at the European Parliament and worked at the Legislative Planning and Coordination Unit at Secretariat-General of the European Parliament. She also did internships at the EU Unit of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Czech Embassy in Stockholm.