

5th European Environmental Evaluators Network Forum

Evaluation for better regulation in environment and climate policies – Lessons from research and practice

15-16 September 2016, European Environment Agency (EEA), Copenhagen, Denmark

Practical information guide

The Forum will be held at the European Environment Agency (EEA) from Thursday 15 September at 9.00 to Friday 16 September at 15.00. Full meeting agenda is available on the EEEN Forum website.

Registration

Registration for the event is free of charge and upon invitation only: accepted speakers, discussion leaders and participants have been notified about their acceptance by email and asked to re-confirm their attendance by 15 August 2016. Please note: We are now at capacity for the conference room and cannot accept new registrations.

The onsite registration will be open from 9.00 on Thursday 15 September and from 8.30 on Friday 16 September. Please sign the attendance list at the registration desk on both days. You will receive a booklet with the agenda and list of participants and your name badge when registering on Thursday. Please wear the badge visibly when in the building and bring it to the networking dinner on Thursday as well – it will serve as your entrance ticket (as long as you have pre-registered for the dinner).

Venue

The Forum will take place in the premises of the European Environment Agency. The Agency is centrally located at Kongens Nytorv (King's New Square), the largest public square of Copenhagen.

How to get to the Agency

From the airport

Kongens Nytorv, where the EEA is located, is connected to Copenhagen airport (in Danish: Københavns Lufthavn, Kastrup) by a direct metro line. The metro station in the airport is located at the very end of Terminal 3. Once exiting baggage claim walk straight ahead, up the escalators, or take the elevator up to level 1 by following the metro signs. The travel time to Kongens Nytorv is approximately 15 minutes. The Metro operates at 4-6 minutes' intervals during the day and evening hours, and every 15 minutes during the night.

Metro map

Metro tickets are available at the metro station and at the ticket sales counter in Terminal 3. You need a 3-zone ticket to Kongens Nytorv (ticket price is 36 DKK ~ 4.83 EUR). Please note that the ticket machines do not accept notes, only coins or cards such as the VISA, Mastercard, etc. The ticket is valid for 60 minutes after purchase and does not need to be validated when getting on the metro. For information about single tickets and city passes (valid for 24 or 72 hours), please refer to the Copenhagen Metro website.

For a detailed trip plan you can use Rejseplanen or Google Maps.

From the metro station to the EEA:

When you get off at Kongens Nytorv metro station, walk from the station to the EEA premises – a two-minute walk.

From the train station

If arriving by train to the Central station (in Danish: Københavns Hovedbanegård, København H), take the 1A bus (direction Hellerup st.) to Kongens Nytorv. You will need a 2-zone bus ticket and can buy it at the ticket machine at the Central station or on the bus from the driver (ticket price 24 DKK ~ 3.23 EUR).

Internet access

WiFi is available at the venue and you will get the access credentials on arrival.

Technical equipment (for speakers)

All meeting rooms are equipped with PCs with the latest Windows package. Speakers are welcome to use PowerPoint or other presentations, preferably in 16:9 format. There are no laser pointers or slide advancers, if you wish to use one, please bring it with you.

Meals at the event

The EEA will host coffee breaks on both days and offer the networking dinner on Thursday 15 September to all meeting participants that have signed up for the dinner through the registration form – if in doubt, please refer to the confirmation email you received after you registered. As for lunches, a warm buffet lunch is available onsite in the EEA's canteen for 95 DKK or 13 EUR. Payment by cash, debit or credit card is accepted.

Networking dinner

Thursday evening (15 September)

A networking dinner will take place at the Royal Danish Playhouse (in Danish: Skuespilhuset), within a 10-minute walk from the EEA, with an arrival by 18.45 for dinner to be served at 19.15. Please note: participation in the dinner is only possible if you signed up through the registration form. Remember to bring your event badge. Those who have registered special dietary requirements will be catered for. Dinner dress code: smart casual.
